FOREWORD

Welcome to the pages of the 1946 NAUTILUS. The Class of 1946 has labored hard and long to produce a volume worthy of your patronage. Although war-time shortages were rampant, the staff stubbornly refused to yield to them—and today you have your book. The book was planned to bring you many hours of enjoyment, and was prayerfully aimed to glorify Christ, and His servant, The Cincinnati Bible Seminary. We are proud of our finished product, and we hope you shall be also as you show it to your relatives and friends.

OUR THEME

“We’re Sailing Home”

*“We’re sailing home, We’re sailing home,
O won’t you come on board?
Our pilot is the Lord.
We’re sailing home, We’re sailing home,
To the land of endless day.”*

—L. James Kindig

Life is often compared to a ship sailing upon the seas. Our journey begins at birth and ends in death. At time the seas are rough, and fierce storms may threaten destruction. Yet at other times the seas are peaceful and calm, affording an opportunity to repair the ship and prepare it for future gales. If the ship is made of stern stuff, the vessel will, in due time, reach the haven of rest. The victory will be won, and traveling days will be over.

DEDICATION

In recognition of the great service they have rendered to the Church of Christ throughout the nation and the special assistance they have given in the promotion and building of The Cincinnati Bible Seminary, we, the class of 1946, gratefully dedicate this edition of the Nautilus to

THE HOME PORT

THE HOUSE OF WORSHIP

Price and Grand Avenues

In this building, purchased in 1941, The Cincinnati Bible Seminary holds its Convocations, chapel services, debates, oratorical contests, and Commencement Week programs. Some of the largest classes meet in the Annex, as do also the Literary Societies and the World Mission Volunteers. The Annex is likewise the scene of many parties and benefit programs. The seating capacity of the building is over 1000.

THE ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

On the Glenway Campus

A sturdy structure housing eight classrooms, the Book Store and offices. The Seminary library of over 7000 volumes is located on the third floor. Of special interest to all are the pictures of the graduating classes, which are located in the hallway on the first floor.

THE GLENWAY CAMPUS

2700 Glenway Avenue

The Glenway Campus was purchased in 1939 and comprises twenty-seven acres between Lehman Road and Glenway Avenues. Six buildings are located here which are the Administration Building, three Men's Dormitories, a Caretaker's house, and a stone building miscellaneously used. When materials become available a number of new buildings will be erected here.

At its 1945 peak the dormitories on the Glenway Campus boasted a capacity occupation of ninety inhabitants. The Men's Dining Hall is located in the red brick dormitory pictured above.

THE WOMEN'S DEPARTMENT

Approximately 170 girls are housed in the buildings that constitute the Women's Department. Three of these buildings—Dalton Hall, Filer Dormitory, and the Caroline Apartments—are owned by the Seminary, and the remainder are rented. Dalton Hall and Filer Dormitory each contain a classroom, while the main office of the Seminary is located in Dalton Hall. President Records also resides in Dalton Hall when in the city.

THE CAROLINE APARTMENTS

Grand Avenue

Purchased during the summer of 1945 this beautiful structure has twenty-four rooms, which is helping out tremendously during the housing shortage.

THE PATH

From Glenway Avenue

The students smile as they climb this path and plan to spend their third million for an escalator to make the trip to the top of "Sunshine Mountain" more comfortable. Nevertheless it still remains a long long trail.

THE OLD GUARD AT THE COLLEGE OF THE BIBLE

The students of The Cincinnati Bible Seminary are a part of the fourth generation of the Restoration Movement. In 1840 Alexander Campbell became the first president of Bethany College, and gave lectures there until 1865. Among his students were Isaiah Boone Grubbs, Charles Louis Loos, and John William McGarvey. All three were later associated together on the Faculty of Kentucky University and the College of the Bible. I. B. Grubbs, M. A. (1833-1912) was the youngest of the three, and became a member of the faculty in 1873. His specialty was exegesis of the Pauline Epistles. In addition to this he taught Church History; Acts, in the Sacred History course; and occasionally other subjects. His ability as an exegete is demonstrated in his volume, "New Commentary on Romans." Charles Louis Loos, A. M., LL. D. (1823-1911) was one of Bethany's first students, arriving there in 1842. He was not only a student under Alexander Campbell, but was his private secretary. In 1880 he became president of Kentucky University, after which term he served as professor of Greek until his death. He contributed articles to the Millennial Harbinger, the Christian Standard, and other journals. J. W. McGarvey, A. M., LL. D. (1829-1911) graduated from Bethany College with honors in 1850. In 1865 he was elected professor of Sacred History of the College of the Bible, and became its president in 1895. He travelled extensively on the Continent and in Egypt and in Palestine. The great volume, "Lands of the Bible," was the product of this trip. He also wrote a "Commentary on Acts of Apostles," "Text and Canon of the New Testament," "Credibility and Inspiration of the New Testament," "Evidences of Christianity," "Commentary on Matthew and Mark," a volume of "Sermons," "Jesus and Jonah," "Authorship of Deuteronomy," "Fourfold Gospel," "Biblical Criticism," and "Daniel in the Critics' Den." He was a contributing editor to the Christian Standard for many years.

THE OLD GUARD AT C. B. S.

President Ralph L. Records, Professor R. C. Foster, and Dr. Ira M. Boswell studied under Professors Grubbs, Loos, and McGarvey at the College of the Bible. They in turn have been faithfully teaching us. Let us of the fourth generation dedicate ourselves to be trustworthy guards—defenders of the faith.

CHARACTER AND PURPOSE OF THE CINCINNATI BIBLE SEMINARY

"The Cincinnati Bible Seminary, in its endeavor to equip and train young men and women for Christian service, shall make the Bible its chief text book, arrange all its courses of study, and conduct its work in harmony with the spirit and letter of the Word of God. To this end every trustee and teacher must be a member of the Church of Christ (undenominational) and MUST BELIEVE WITHOUT RESERVATION, in the full and final inspiration of the Bible to the extent that it is to him the infallible Word of God, and, therefore, the all-sufficient rule of faith and life; in the deity and supreme authority of Christ; obedience to the Gospel; the edification of the Church; and the restoration of its unity on the New Testament basis.

"Believing that such faith and a church with a program in harmony with this faith are essential to the salvation of the world, The Cincinnati Bible Seminary shall endeavor to so train and inspire its students as to make of them effective servants of God."

CHARACTER OF THE INSTRUCTION AND POLICY OF THE SCHOOL

The Cincinnati Bible Seminary is entirely loyal to Christ and every teaching of His Word.

In matters of opinion the students are advised to be courteous and considerate of the opinions of others, "in honor preferring one another."

In matters of faith and conscience they are instructed to be absolutely loyal to "the teaching of the Word of God, and to remember they are "set for the defense of the Gospel."

The work of the Seminary is conducted independently of all other agencies and organizations. The school is happy to cooperate with all other agencies as far as they follow the teaching and spirit of the Word of God, but no farther. The Seminary desires no direction or control of other agencies and resents any suggestion of control from them. The Cincinnati Bible Seminary recognizes responsibility only to God and the donors and friends who have made the work of the institution possible.

Frank W. Buck

FIELD REPRESENTATIVE

Frank W. Buck

Over 50,000 miles are travelled each year by Mr. Buck to interest the churches and prospective students in The Cincinnati Bible Seminary. Although he did not assume his full position as Field Representative until he received his B.D. degree in 1932 he has been active in this work since 1928. Beside the travelling requirements there is also a great deal of office work connected with his position. For the past few years it has been Mr. Buck's responsibility to aid the ministerial students in regard to the Selective Service laws. One of Mr. Buck's annual activities is the organizing of National Campaign Week.

HISTORIAN

Florence L. Records

Florence L. Records has rendered invaluable service to The Cincinnati Bible Seminary as its historian. Her contribution to the school has been recognized by the faculty and students of Delta Aleph Tau in awarding her the Key and admitting her to membership in that honor society. Her courteous and friendly spirit have won for her a permanent place in the hearts of the many students with whom she has come in contact. Her interest in the school and its welfare is genuine and has led her to make many sacrifices on its behalf. We pay tribute to her as a great character and a loyal worker for the school she loves and serves.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1946

President Ralph L. Records

Swiftly the days have passed since you enrolled as Freshmen in The Cincinnati Bible Seminary. When you made out your first class schedule, your graduation seemed to be an event in the distant future. Now it seems but as yesterday that you began your life in a new and strange environment. Today, as you look back over these eventful years, you find them filled mostly with sunshine, with only a few shadows that accentuate the beauty and brightness of the happy sunny days.

During the years you have been with us we have grown to love you and have a deep interest in you, and you have become a part of the Seminary family. We have tried to put the best of our lives into you, and as you go to your various fields of labor you will express our ideals, hopes, and aims. These, modified by your own personality and mental alertness, under your initiative and zeal, will make you effective servants of Christ.

A few days hence you will receive your degrees and diplomas, your Alma Mater's recognition of your life and labor with us. As we give them to you, we will be filled with a sense of pride, as you will be so filled to receive them. We will feel also a great tenderness in our hearts because we know that you will be going out from us, and that we shall miss the joy of your daily smiles and greeting and the happy fellowship that has been a great inspiration to us. We will try to restrain the tears that come to our eyes as we say goodbye—as the fathers and mothers do when their sons march away under the spell of martial music to fight their country's battles. These tears shall evidence our love, our devotion to you, our hope for your fearlessness and faithfulness in the discharge of your duties, and our unchanging friendship.

It is entirely fitting, at such a time, that we should direct to you some final words of encouragement and instruction that will be helpful in the emergencies that will confront you, as well as in the less stirring times of your ministry.

Since you began your college work a great war has been fought and won. The problems it brought challenged our civilization. The peace that has come has not solved these problems, but brought additional ones and thus increased our responsibilities.

The enemy nations have been defeated and broken. They can not care for themselves. The countries they ravaged are helpless. Millions face starvation. The cries of hunger, misery, and death fill these lands. These peoples must be fed and clothed, restored to health, and brought to a state where they can support themselves again.

Not only is the physical distress following the war to be alleviated, but crime is rampant and must be suppressed. The military might of the nations has been overcome, but the spirit that led to war still lives in many hearts. Armies of occupation must control and guide the conquered peoples until they will not make war again.

Until they will not make war again! When shall that time be? Not until the spirit of greed and conquest, the lust of loot and power, and the bestial shall have been removed from human hearts.

When shall that time be? Not until the Prince of Peace has come into the hearts of men.

This will be your work—to bring to the peoples of the world a knowledge of the Prince of Peace and his way of life. Only when the hearts and lives of men have been transformed by the Gospel of Jesus Christ may we expect a peaceful world. The power that transformed the militant, persecuting, murderous Saul of Tarsus into the righteous, longsuffering, and gentle Paul, the apostle, can save this wicked world.

The philosophies of the infidel, the atheist, the agnostic, the vaporings of modernists, liberal preachers and cults, only add confusion to a world already confounded and increase its woes and miseries. The social gospel venders tell suffering, dying humanity to be good, be sociable and clever, and lift themselves from the mire by their own strength. Minister to the body, they say; practice selfrighteousness and merit whatever good may come your way. There is no sin; therefore you do not need and there cannot be a Saviour. Save yourselves!

Into such a world Jesus sent his disciples, saying, "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." Paul, echoing the spirit of the Great Commission, said, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jews first, and also to the Greek."

Members of the Class of 1946, if you are commissioned of the Lord to do anything, it is to preach the Gospel and teach the people whatsoever the Lord has commanded. You are not sent to proclaim a "social gospel," nor to minister primarily to the physical needs of humanity. All the good things relating to physical needs are supplied as a by-product of Gospel preaching and are loving expressions of the brotherhood of believers in Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God.

When men accept the Prince of Peace as sovereign of heart and life, their natures will be transformed, crime will be destroyed, and the hungry will be fed and clothed. Here lies the only solution to the problems that confront the world.

We hope and pray that you all may be faithful to Him who has called you in the proclamation of the Gospel—God's solution for the problems of the world, and his way to peace upon earth and to the life eternal.

We shall follow your ministries with deep concern, rejoicing in your victories, sharing in the sorrows of any trials you may undergo, always praying that the Lord will bless you and use you to the enlargement of his Kingdom.

We will be glad when you can come back home for a little visit to refresh your souls and ours by Christian fellowship and the recalling of the happy experiences of your school days. If, in the Providence of God, you can never return to visit your Alma Mater, we shall expect you to keep faith with us, as we will with you, until we realize the goal of our common faith — eternal reunion in the land of endless day.

"The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: the Lord make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace."

We, the Class of 1946, feel that we have been fortunate in having had Professor Louis N. Wetzel as our class sponsor these past four years and to have had Mrs. Wetzel as our class mother. Striving always to be one of us, Professor and Mrs. Wetzel have executed their office humbly. In turn they have received the love and admiration of the members of the class. Each year the class was entertained in the Wetzel home, where food and fun were always supplied in abundance. We pray that God's richest blessings will be theirs as they continue their work at C. B. "THEY THAT GO DOWN TO THE SEA IN SHIPS"

Psalm 107: 23-32

- 23—They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;
24—These see the works of the Lord; and his wonders in the deep.
25—For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.
25—They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.
27—They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end.
28—Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.
29—He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.
30—Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them into their desired haven.
31—Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!
32—Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

By Miss Marjorie King

1942 - 1943

In spite of the war which brought with it the draft, gas and food rationing, and a shortened school year, over eighty students were enrolled as Freshmen in The Cincinnati Bible Seminary in the Fall of 1942.

Although we were made to feel at home in the Seminary from the day we first entered her halls, it was not until after the long awaited "Sneak Day" and the Sophomore-Freshmen reception that we began to realize that we too were a vital part of C.B.S.

The officers for the first year were as follows: President, Eugene Bream; Vice President, Roy-McKinney; Secretary Ollie Mae Casey; Treasurer Warren Nay; Flower Girl, Lois Hall and Historian, Marjorie King. Evelyn Large Fogelman was later chosen to represent the class in the Family Night program.

The first few meetings of the class were spent in adopting a constitution, and selecting the class motto, colors, and flower. Professor Louis N. Wetzel was chosen to be our Faculty Advisor.

We soon showed our abilities by supplying valuable material for Literary programs, the basketball team, speech events, music groups, and the like. The class also furnished the ushers for the Conference on Evangelism. Then we were highly elated on Festival Day when members of the class captured the day's honors for athletic skill. These Freshmen were Ollie Mae Casey and Tom Burtner.

It was with mingled joy and sorrow that we witnessed the Commencement exercises closing our first year at C.B.S. Then we began to plan to return—as Sophomores.

1943 - 1944

After one successful year at C.B.S. and a most eventful summer, we joyfully returned. We had suffered the loss of several class members, but then others had joined our ranks.

The officers during our Sophomore year were as follows: President, Eugene Bream; Vice President, Leo Epperson; Secretary, Velda Godlove; Treasurer, Calvin Phillips; and Flower Girl, Lois Hall.

Remembering our debt of gratitude to the Sophomores in the past year, we immediately planned a reception for the Freshmen.

Other projects for the year were: sponsoring a box social; supplying registration secretaries at the Conference on Evangelism; and the sale of "The Temple Smith," by Professor Sayres.

Helen Reed Bream represented the class that year in the Family Night program.

1944 - 1945

It did not take us long to get to work during our Junior year. Our officers were: President, Calvin Phillips; Vice President, Allan Buck; Secretary, Velda Godlove; Treasurer, Leo Epperson and Flower Girl, Mary Grace Schmink. Then looking forward to the year to come, Ralph Harter was selected as editor of the NAUTILUS, and Paul Neal was elected photographer. Later in the year Imogene Williams was chosen to be our representative in the Family Night program.

Some of the highlights on the calendar this year were: (1) another successful box social; (2) Sale of the books, "High Roads of Life," by O. Ray Burgess and "Flaming Hearts," by Dr. Ira M. Boswell; (3) sponsoring Talent Night, which was a replica of the college book store; (4) and the Junior-Senior Banquet. Don Nickerson was the guest speaker.

1945 - 1946

Our last year at the Seminary was properly begun with the selection of our class officers. They were: President, Calvin Phillips; Vice President, Roy McKinney; Secretary, Velda Godlove; Treasurer, Leo Epperson; and Flower Girl, Jean Dusenberry Baxendale. The remaining members of the Nautilus Staff were elected as follows: Circulation Manager, Allan Buck; Business Manager, Eugene Bream; Publicity Manager, Leo Epperson; Advertising Manager, Charles Troyer; Secretary, Mary Grace Schmink; and Assistant Secretary, Velda Godlove. A. W. McNees and Roy McKinney served as assistant photographers.

Our projects this year included sponsoring Sneak Day, editing the Nautilus, and the selling of emblems, stickers, penants, and greeting cards.

And now bidding a fond farewell, we are eagerly looking forward to expressing our loyalty and willingness to serve our Christ and our Alma Mater in the years that lie before us.

Although comparatively few in number, the Class of 1947 is not lacking in spirit. This spirit was nobly expressed in the three Junior Class-sponsored activities: box social, Talent Night, and the Junior Senior Banquet. In addition to this they made it possible for their fellow students to purchase various needed and desired items of merchandise. With their sponsor, President Ralph L. Records, they are preparing for the big ahead.

There are no short cuts to any of the degrees conferred by The Cincinnati Bible Seminary. Educational standards are held high, and the requirements are more exacting than those of most schools. No college or seminary can say that the degree it confers guarantees wisdom and skill on the part of the recipient, but it should guarantee that he has received adequate academic training. No student, however, needs to be deterred from attendance at the Seminary because he has little or no high school training. Here the opportunity is given to make up the deficiency, or to take a limited specialized training, and while doing this, to enjoy full Seminary fellowship as a member of the Special Class.

Each year finds an ever increasing number of graduates in The Cincinnati Bible Seminary—the graduates of C.B.S., and graduates of other colleges as well. Most of these graduates are taking additional classroom work; some are actively assisting in the work of the school. For their benefit the Graduate Club has been organized. In the promotion of school spirit and the presentation of opportunities for service, this club promotes fellowship among the older students. One of the projects of the Graduate Club is the publishing of "The Purple and Gold," a school paper.

Philothean Literary Society

The Philotheans would have you believe that their meeting room is overcrowded, but notice the empty seats.

Phileusebian Literary Society

Is there any significance to the fact that above we see the faces of the Philotheans and here we see the backs of the Phileusebians?

Logic and Ethics

This class of Professor Carver's was offered on Thursday evenings from 7:00-9:05. The evening classes afford a special opportunity to those who must work during the day.

World Mission Volunteers

The attendance was low at the February meeting but it still took two pictures to correctly represent the group. The charter membership of this group in 1943 was only 13.

The difference in the facial expressions of the two pictures is due to a joke the photographer told.

CHAPEL SERVICES

Fond to the hearts of its students and alumni are the bi-weekly chapel services in the House of Worship. Each Wednesday and Friday morning at eleven-thirty, the auditorium is packed with those hungering for the inspiration that comes from singing the grand old hymns of the faith, and from hearing the Word of God loyally preached.

MEN'S BANQUET

Foremost in the minds of the students of The Cincinnati Bible Seminary when they purchase tickets to a banquet is the feast of spiritual things they shall enjoy after the last piece of pie has been served. The six annual occasions of this nature at the Seminary are: the Missionary Banquet, Conference on Evangelism Banquet, Men's Banquet, Women's Banquet, Junior-Senior Banquet, and Alumni Banquet.

FAMILY NIGHT

Class presidents and representatives give history, projects, and goals of their individual classes.

One feature of The Cincinnati Bible Seminary that makes it unique among other colleges is that its faculty, students, alumni, and friends, bound together with the ties of a common faith in Jesus Christ, comprise one big family. We rejoice that one night each year is set aside for a reunion of this family. The invigorating program and fellowship, under the supervision of Professor Elliott, leave each one who attends with a renewed pride in the fact that he is a member of this family.

The Glee-Club directed by Mrs. Paul Mehrens sings for the Seminary's big family.

The Seminary orchestra directed by Don Whitman gives a concert at the beginning of Family Night. There's something wrong with this picture, but you just likely will not discover it until you are one hundred years old.

The annual Oratorical Contest is designed to stimulate interest in the finer points of public speaking by providing good, wholesome competition for those who wish to participate. Each contestant must prepare his own oration, and is subsequently judged on both its content and his delivery. The winner is then presented with the Forensic key and many congratulations from his fellow students.

Each year the Sophomore class entertains the Freshman class this being one of the highlights of the school year. After this evening of entertainment the Freshmen no longer feel that they are strangers.

The competition between the Philothean and Phileusebian Literary Societies is not lacking when the time comes for the Halloween and Valentine parties. From September to May one hears the Philotheans bragging about their entertaining the Phileusebians at the Halloween frolic, while the Phileusebians will prove that their Valentine party for the Philotheans was far more lovely. The neutral will admit that he had a good time on both occasions.

The Phileusebian Literary Society ("Lovers of Righteousness") holds its meetings on the second floor of the House of Worship. Each year it befalls the new students to choose which society they believe is best, thus providing much hilarious and wholesome competition between the two societies.

The Phileusebians are to be congratulated for their proficiency in repeatedly capturing the inter-society debate honors. They shall also will be remembered for their Valentine Party and Phileusebian Open Session.

Dr. Ira M. Boswell is this society's beloved critic.

This group is very active, participating in school functions, presenting an annual spring concert, and singing at near-by churches.

The student officers are: Ethel Uhrich, President; Mary Nell Marcantel, Vice President; Nancy Taylor, Secretary-Treasurer; Dorothy Stebbins, Business Manager; and Caroline Osterhout, Librarian. The pianists this year have been Mary Louise Zace and LaVerne Karns.

The Men's Chorus is one of the finest activities offered to the men of C. B. S. It offers not only a valuable training for the singing voice, but also a most pleasing fellowship of kindred minds.

Throughout the year they bring numbers on special occasions, such as Convocation, Family Night, Men's Banquet, Conference on Evangelism, and Commencement Week. Upon invitation, and at their convenience, they present special programs in the churches.

An annual concert is held in the spring, which always proves to be very inspirational. Many of the numbers used in the concert are the personal arrangements of its able director, Don Whitman.

"Music has charms to soothe a savage breast," and this is all the more true when the Seminary Orchestra is producing it. This group of talented musicians always succeeds in pleasing its audiences whenever it performs. Nevertheless, this is not their only objective, inasmuch as the personal enjoyment and fellowship is greatly relished. Don Whitman organized this orchestra last year, and he remains its able conductor.

The council is capably guided by Miss Bertha Filer.

Activities of the year included a Chapel program designed to point out the many opportunities for women who wish to do Christian work. A girls' newspaper, "Femi-News," was introduced under the direction of Miss Filer, with members of the council as members of its staff. The years' outstanding activity is the Girls' Banquet held each spring.

This young organization of The Cincinnati Bible Seminary had its beginning in the home of Isabel Maxey Dittmore in January, 1943. Beginning with thirteen charter members, this group has steadily grown until it has over 100 active members.

The annual Banquet at the beginning of the school year was especially inspiring and challenging this year with Hollins Duhon of the French Mission Field in Louisiana as the speaker.

At the regular meetings, on the first Thursday of each month, a message is brought by one of our missionaries or other representative of a mission field, followed by a challenging devotional talk by one of the members.

A monthly publication, the "Go Ye . . .", is printed each month to announce the coming meeting and to stimulate the desire of students to accept the call of needy mission fields.

The Forensic Club fosters a more efficient proclamation of the Gospel through promotion of public speaking, debating and oratory. Membership is open to participants in the Inter-Society Debates, the Oratorical Contest, and the Declamatory Contest—each of which is sponsored by the Club.

The ideals set forth by the club in both speech preparation and delivery contribute much in preparing the participants to spread knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ and His plan of salvation.

The Cincinnati Bible Seminary makes a strong appeal to the returning Service Man. Its course of study is practical, meeting the deepest need of the student. Instead of having to make a fight to maintain his personal faith, as would be necessary in some colleges, he is built up in spiritual strength in an atmosphere of contagious faith in God and His Word.

The doctrinal position of the Seminary appeals to all thinking people. It is truly undenominational, accepting no creed but Christ, standing courageously for the exaltation of Christ and the unity of His people. Here is a training school with an adequate message for this time of urgent need.

"The Golden Eagles" provided a very exciting season for the many sports lovers at the Seminary this year. Coach Tom Omer, ably assisted by Buford Odor, led the teams through a most interesting season. One of the highlights of the season was the regaining of the cup from the Butler School of Religion. The team played in the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night league, and also played Friday evening games. The latter made it possible for many students to attend the games.

Norman Antle was team manager and Bob Vorce was club secretary.

The Homemakers Club was organized in the early years of the Seminary to foster a greater fellowship among the married students. It was realized by President and Mrs. Records that such a club could offer to these students the same type of sociability found in the girls' and boys' dormitories. From the beginning the club fulfilled its purpose.

The regular fellowship meetings are held on the last Wednesday evening of every month during the school year. Occasionally a meeting is planned when the husbands can attend. The Homemakers cooperate with the Whatsoever Club in planning the annual Girls' Banquet. A Christmas party is also given each year for the children of Seminary families.

The council this year is composed of Mrs. Don Whitman, President; Mrs. Frank Buck, Mrs. Russell Casey, Mrs. Toney Conley, Mrs. C. W. Callaway, Mrs. Ruth Van Horn, and Mrs. Ronald Cochran.

At the height of his military career Napoleon said, "An army travels on its stomach." If the Christian soldiers training at C. B. S., are to be at their greatest efficiency, they must have food in both quantity and quality. The position as cook is one of the greatest responsibilities to be found, and presents a challenge to those who want to see this army advance.

My Neighbor's Garden

Ira M. Boswell

My neighbor has a garden
With flowers rich and rare;
The garden is my neighbor's,
But he does not own the air.

The fragrance of the flowers
Is wafted on the breeze;
And I enjoy the perfume
As freely as I please.

So, if my wealthy neighbor
Owns a garden rich and fine,
And I'm too poor to own one,
Why, then, should I repine?

For I possess its beauty, its Fragrance sweet as honey,
While he does the labor,
And also spends his money.

My neighbor owns a garden
With flowers rich and rare;
My neighbor owns the garden,
But he does not own the air.

The flowers in his garden
Are most beautiful to see;
And the wonder of it is,
The view is free to me!

So I am glad my neighbor
Owns a garden full of flowers;
And for the joy it gives to me,
I call the garden ours.

The Silver Flute

Ira M. Boswell

Discarded now the silver flute,
Its dulcet voice is sadly mute;
No longer from its tuneful throat
Is heard the liquid birdlike note—
Each note a flower, fragrant, rare,
Coloring the ambient air
With petals from these flowers blown,
As if by soaring skylark sown,
When beating time with gold-flecked wings,
He upward mounts, and sweetly sings;
And on the glinting sunbeams spills
The song his feathered throat o'er fills.

The silver flute is silent now,
And grateful hearts in silence bow;
But unforget are golden hours
When music fell in sparkling showers,
As if from notes of shining stars,
Emblazoned on the rainbow's bars.

The flute that many hearts hath filled,
Is sleeping now, its music stilled;
But from its silver softly gleams
The fairy music, sweet as dreams
Of lilting choirs in woodland trees
And scented clover filled with bees.

Silent is the silver flute,
Its singing voice is sadly mute;
For he who was its living soul
Is shaky now, and gray, and old.—
Lest trembling fingers should profane
Its former beauty n'er again
Will he disturb its quiet sleep,
But ever let it silent keep.

Whether the foe be indidelly, or just plain old sin, these preachers of tomorrow will be able to stand, for they are being taught in the classrooms of C. B. S. how to use the Sword of the Spirit, the only weapon which can overcome the forces of evil. They do not look to the streamlined world of the future with a streamlined message, but with the "Old Book and the Old Faith" they will continue to win souls for Christ.

Those who yearn for the conversion of the world to Christ, should take courage in seeing this group of young men that have dedicated their lives to this purpose. They are convinced that their Example is found in a Preacher of yesterday, today, and forever, namely Jesus Christ. His life was sinless. He spoke the truth. His methods of preaching were perfect. These men are grounded in the truth by their own study of the Word until they are not "carried about with every wind of doctrine." With them lies the hope of the world—the hope for world peace, for Christian unity, and most of all for eternal salvation. Our prayer is that they shall be faithful to the end.

To "Dad" who could be the school president Auburn, who is the school teacher.

W A N T E D !

Soldiers of the Christ of the Cross who dare preach, through word and life, the WHOLE counsel of God. We join with Professor Foster in "praying for men of passionate devotion who will 'go,' men of dauntless courage who will 'preach', and men of strong character who will give the people of God the inspiring example of a godly life."

We are proud of you who are going forth, as others have gone before, to contend earnestly for the faith. We do pray that you will be good ministers of Christ Jesus and that you will also do all in your power to influence others to fill up the ranks of the ministry. So stir up the gift that is within you and place it unreservedly at the service of Christ and your fellowmen.

WE FELICITATE YOU UPON YOUR GRADUATION, and earnestly and sincerely urge that you always "contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered unto the saints; preaching this "Word" in season and out of season; and use it as a means of reproving and rebuking those gone astray. Furthermore, on your own part, may you add dilligence. "In your faith supply virtue; and in your virtue knowledge; and in your knowledge self-control; and in your self-control patience; and in your patience godliness; and in your godliness brotherly kindness; and in your brotherly kindless love. For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful unto the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Cordially yours,

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Morristown, Indiana
